PROPOSED AMENDMENT To the Constitution of Ohio. LEGISLATIVE SINGLE DISTRICTS.

SECTION 1. Be it resolved by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio, That a proposition shall be submitted to the electors of this State on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November 1883, to amend Sections 1 to 11, inclusive, of Article XI, of the Constitution of the State of Ohio, so they shall read as follows:

ARTICLE XL

ARTICLE XI.

SEC. 1. The apportanment for members of the general assembly shall be made every ten years, prior to the first election for members of the general assembly in each decennial period, in the manner herein provided.

SEC. 2. During the month of February, prior to the first election for members of the general assembly after the passage of this act and in each decennial period the members of the senate and house of representatives representing the two leading political parties, respectively, shall meet in separate bodies, and each of said bodies shall designate two electors who shall forthwith be appointed by the governor; and said four electors so designated and appointed shall constitute a commission who shall ascertain and determine the ratio of representatives and senators, the number of representatives and senators, the number of representatives to which each county is entitled, and the boundari's of each senatorial district. Should any vacancy occur in said commission the senators of the party making the original designation shall, within ten days thereafter, designate an elector to fill such vacancy, and he shall forthwith be appointed by the governor.

SEC. 3. The population of the state, as ascertained by the preeding federal census, or in such other manner as the general assembly shall direct shall be divided by the number "one hundred" and the quotient shall be the ratio of representation in the house of representatives for the ten years succeeding such apportioniment.

SEC. 4. Each county shall be entitled to two parts and the residual to the state, and the residual to the state, and the residual to the state, and the representative such county containing such ratio, and there-fourths over, shall be entitled to one representative; each county containing such atio, and three-fourths over, shall be entitled to two representatives; each county containing three times such ratio shall be entitled to three repre-
